Here are the questions we just asked our interviewees.

- Talk a bit about your basic philosophy of education. How would you describe it?
- What kind of students do you like to work with? What type of students could you teach most effectively?
- How would you individualize instruction for students?
- How might you go about helping prepare students to succeed on the Responding to Literature CAPT?
- Describe your classroom management style? How do you maintain a safe learning environment for your students?
- Describe any school experience you have had, particularly in student teaching (or in another teaching position) that has prepared you for a full-time position at our school.
- What do you consider to be your strengths and how will you use them in your teaching?
- What contributions can you make to our school?
