

My personal mission statement:

I am on a mission to improve the science and mathematics literacy of all of my students. I want to inspire my students to pursue an understanding of the fundamental laws of the universe. I want to instill in them a positive, questioning attitude. I want to improve my student's problem solving abilities and demonstrate their use in understanding and appreciating the complexity and beauty of the world around us.

R.E.Tremblay